We do not use optional cookies without the user's prior consent. On the user's first visit to our website, a window will appear asking for consent to the use of optional cookies. If you consent, a cookie will be stored on your computer and the window will not appear again during the lifetime of the cookie. If the cookie expires or the user deletes the cookie, the next time the user visits our website, the window will reappear asking for consent.

By changing the settings in the table on the website, the user has the right to withdraw his consent to the use of optional cookies at any time. Of course, the user can also use our website without cookies. You can deactivate or restrict the use of cookies in your browser at any time, which may, however, have a negative impact on the usability of the site and its user-friendliness.
